

COC in Kranj (SLO):

Antonin Hajek (CZE) wins the first day

Antonin Hajek from Czechia has won the first COC competition in Kranj (247.4 points / 114,5m and 96,0m) today. Jon Aaraas (246.6 points / 111,5m and 98,0m) from Norway took the second place and the Slovenian Jure Bogataj (243.5 points / 109,5m and 98,0m) was third. The competition was accompanied by more than 200 spectators in the OMV ski jumping centre in Kranj. Tomorrow there will be the second competition day with the start at 9:30 with the trial round and 10:30 with first round.

Antonin Hajek:

"Today's first jump was perfect, while the second one was not so good. I'm very happy that I won today here in Kranj. Tomorrow I will try to do the same".

Jon Aaraas:

"I'm very satisfied with today's first jump, also the wind was great. The second jump was not good but I will try to be better tomorrow. I'll go for a win tomorrow".

Jure Bogataj

"I'm very happy that I made a podium on my home hill. Jumps are not perfect, but I must be happy with today's result".

Next COC Competition will be held in Kranj (SLO) tomorrow, 06.01.2008.
